Atlanta – Special Agent in Charge (SAC) Gregory Jones, FBI Atlanta, announces the presentation of the FBI Director’s Community Leadership Award to the Tapestri Immigrant & Refugee Coalition this Thursday, January 5, 2009, at 10:00 a.m. in the FBI’s 2 nd floor training room, 2635 Century Parkway NE, Atlanta. Atlanta Special Agent in Charge Gregory Jones will make the award on behalf of Director Robert Mueller III, and will be available for interview following the presentation.

Tapestri Immigrant & Refugee Coalition is a non-governmental organization located in Atlanta which provides outreach, education and direct services for victims of human trafficking. They are dedicated to the prevention of human trafficking and provide assistance to victims of both sexual and labor exploitation. FBI Atlanta has had a collaborative relationship with Tapestri since 1999. During that time, Tapestri has provided assistance to over two dozen victims in various human trafficking investigations conducted by FBI Atlanta.
